

SING SING FOR PASTOR'S SON.

Philip C. Germond is sentenced to prison for forging the name of his father, the Rev. Philip Germond.

THIS IS HIS THIRD TERM.

Lawyer Pleads for Clemency on the ground that the young man's mind is unsound—father and wife not in court.

Philip C. Germond, son of the Rev. Philip Germond, pastor of the Chelsea Methodist Church, was sentenced to Sing Sing Prison for three years to-day by Judge Newburger in General Sessions.

Germond, who is twenty-five years old, and married, pleaded guilty to forging in the second degree. He forged his father's name to a check for $150, which was cashed by a Sixth Avenue dry-goods house. He was arrested in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., on Tuesday, after Detective Kieran, of the Central Office, had chased him over the country.

This is young Germond's third term in prison. He pleaded guilty in 1888 to petty larceny on a check transaction, and because of his father's name was let off with a sentence of sixty days in the City Prison. In 1900 he pleaded guilty to passing a bogus check and was sent to the reformatory at Elmira.

Charles G. F. Wahle, in whose law office young Germond was at one time a clerk, begged for clemency for Germond. Mr. Wahle told Judge Newburger he did not believe the prisoner was in his right mind.

"He apparently did not realize the criminality of his acts," Mr. Wahle told Judge Newburger.

Neither the young man's father nor his wife was in court. Germond will be taken to Sing Sing on Monday.

TO MOTHERS OF BOYS:

Whether it's seashore, mountains or just plain country, vacation means a hard time for clothes.

It's the time we best like to have boys first wear our clothes—the difference shows quickest between our good sort, at moderate prices, and the cheap sort, for a bit less, or no less.

If hurried in getting off it's convenient to get everything that the boy ever wears in one store; and pleasant to know that anything you find he doesn't need can go back.

LAWYER MILLS SENT TO TOMBS

Prosecution Closes Its Case Against Him, and the Defense Asked the Court for Adjournment Until Monday.

BAIL, HOWEVER, IS REFUSED.

Ex-Justice Fursman Predicts that His Client Will Be Acquitted on Charges of Attempt to Bribe Jerome's Assistant.

Ex-Justice Edgar L. Fursman, counsel for George Edward Mills, the lawyer on trial before Justice Fitzgerald in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, for attempting to bribe Assistant District Attorney Garvan to destroy the six indictments against Dr. Richard C. Flower, says he is confident that Mills will be acquitted.

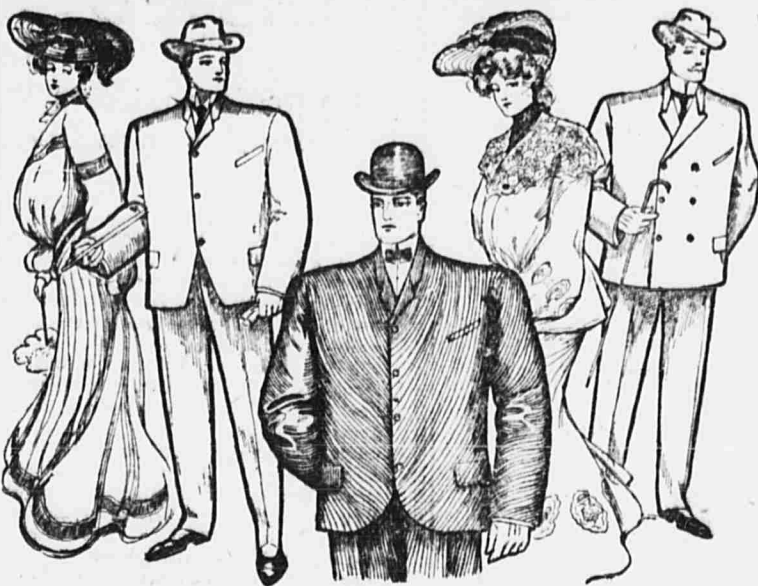

When the trial of Mills was resumed this morning ex-Justice Fursman began the cross-examination of Detective-Sergeant Brindley, the star witness for the prosecution. It was through Brindley that Mills, it is alleged, tried to "reach" Garvan, giving Brindley $1,500 in cash to be paid to the Assistant District Attorney.

Brindley testified that Mills had told him he knew how "easy it was to dispose of indictments in the District Attorney's office."

Brindley made a good showing on cross-examination. The prosecution closed at noon, and as the defense was not ready the District Attorney asked that Mills be committed to the Tombs until such time as the defense should be put in. Mills, who since his arrest has enjoyed his liberty under $2,000 bail, was committed by Justice Fitzgerald until Monday. The defense promised to be ready to proceed with the trial by that time.
